

Coaching for Positive Change - Online

Wednesdays, September 30, 2020 – December 16, 2020

5:00pm – 7:00pm EST each day

Faculty: Ralph Weickel & David Reed

Positive Change Coaching is a co-creative process for human transformation. Through collaborative inquiry, dialogue and reflection, it enables people to integrate the best of their past with their strengths, values, and visions; to bring forth positively powerful performance and results. Master positive change coaches are catalysts, curators and witnesses to their clients' transformation and construction of their best self. They establish trust, rapport, an environment of psychological safety, ask provocative and life-affirming questions, while being able to listen with an open heart and embracing mind. Recognizing that words create worlds they are able to mindfully reveal limits and metaphorically build bridges to new possibilities.

During these Sessions you will apply Appreciative Inquiry principles and other strength-based methodologies to coaching, gaining awareness of your “co-creative” presence, and enhance your capacities to:

- Listen for the questions that need to be asked
- Frame questions to discover and catalyze potential
- Facilitate clients establishing clear positive intentions
- Develop your co-creative process for guiding transformation
- Tell stories to suggest new approaches to old problems
- Trust your intuition to guide you and the coaching process
